About This Project

The Safwah program is focused on building young community members as futures leaders that are nourished socially, mentally, and physically, through guided educational programs and fun activities. While our program is at its infancy, we are reaching out to local and national organization to help us find our way and build a strong program for our youth.

The following are some programs and activities we are considering as a starting point:

- 1) Effective Communication Skills
- 2) Public Speaking
- 3) Conflict Resolution
- 4) Building and Maintaining Lasting Strong Relationships/Alliances
- 5) Community Involvement and Volunteering Leadership
- 6) Study Skills and Time Management
- 7) Academic and Career Planning
- 8) Discussions of Emerging Local, National, and World Issues

Other programs will be considered, including those proposed by our youth and parent community.

Thank you for your support to the Safwah Youth Leadership Academy, a pilot program by the Islamic Center of Monroe.

وَأَنْفِقُوا مِنْ مَا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَكُمُ الْمَوْتُ فَيَقُولَ رَبِّ لَوْلَا
أَخَّرْتَنِي إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ قَرِيبٍ فَأَصَّدَّقَ وَأَكُن مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿١٠﴾

And donate from what We have provided for you before death comes to one of you, and you cry, “My Lord! If only You delayed me for a short while, I would give in charity and be one of the righteous.”
